

Mian Tariq Hassan

- Punjab Bar Council (Advocate High Court), 2007
- Punjab Bar Council (Advocate), 2005
- Harvard Law School, LL.M. 2007
- University of London, LL.B. 2004
- University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, B.A. Economics 2001

Tariq has nearly twelve years of experience in non-contentious corporate, commercial, transactional and advisory work ranging from complex corporate structuring, green field projects, start-ups, corporate compliance, labour and employment law matters, mergers & acquisitions, project finance and joint ventures. He has advised corporations in the IT / technology, engineering / manufacturing, retail, amusement park / entertainment, telecommunications, real estate, renewable energy, textile & denim, food, beverages and agricultural sectors.

Tariq recently acted as lead counsel in the set up of two green field projects in the manufacturing sector and has worked with numerous companies and startups in formalizing their corporate structures, executing shareholders agreements and inducting equity investments. He recently assisted a global IT giant to enter the Pakistani market and a leading regional app based transportation company to begin operations in Pakistan. Tariq is currently engaged with a large public sector university in setting up Pakistan's first science and technology park.

Tariq routinely advises various companies in their matters related to real estate and construction. For the past four years Tariq is the main counsel for a leading real estate company which is currently running the largest operational high-end / luxury shopping mall in Lahore. He was recently engaged by a leading construction company to advise on, and draft a design and construction agreement for a signal free (road) corridor in Lahore Pakistan. Tariq is also currently advising on the construction of two commercial retail complexes in Peshawar and Karachi and on the development of a private housing scheme in Lahore.

Tariq also has substantial experience in providing top-quality dispute resolution services (litigation, arbitration & mediation) to a wide variety of clientele and has been involved in a number of commercial disputes and landmark constitutional cases. He has represented a broad portfolio of public sector clients including the Pakistan International Airlines, the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan and the Expo Centre Lahore. Tariq is a Centre for Effective Dispute Resolution (CEDR) Accredited Mediator.