CHAPTER II
CERTIFICATION OF SHARIAH COMPLIANT COMPANIES

3. Certification of a Shariah compliant company.- No company shall be called a Shariah compliant company or hold itself out as operating a Shariah compliant company or Islamic financial institution, by whatever name called, unless it obtains a Shariah compliance certificate from the Commission under these regulations.

4. Application to obtain certification.- (1) Any company desirous of obtaining a Shariah compliance certificate shall make an application to the Commission as set out in Form A along with documents as mentioned therein and receipt evidencing the payment of non-refundable processing fee as prescribed in Schedule I.

(2) The Commission, while considering an application made to it under sub-regulation (1) shall have regard to the Shariah screening criteria as provided in these regulations and any other condition as may be specified by the Commission from time to time.

5. Grant of Shariah compliance certificate.- (1) The Commission may, if it is satisfied that the company seeking Shariah compliance certificate has fulfilled the minimum criteria, grant a Shariah compliance certificate on the format as set out in Form B, subject to such terms and conditions or restrictions as it deem fit to impose:

Provided that the Commission may at any time vary or revoke such restrictions or conditions as it may require.

(2) The Shariah compliance certificate granted under sub-regulation (1), shall remain valid for a period of three years from the date of certificate unless suspended or cancelled earlier by the Commission.

(3) The company shall, at least one month prior to the date of expiry of the certificate, apply for renewal of Shariah compliance certificate to the Commission on the format as set out in Form C along with all the documents as mentioned therein and receipt evidencing the payment of non-refundable processing fee as prescribed in Schedule I.

(4) The Commission may, upon being satisfied, after making such inquiries and obtaining further information as it deems necessary, that the company continues to meet the requirements and conditions of Shariah compliance certificate and is eligible for renewal, shall renew the Shariah compliance certificate on the format as set out in Form D.

(5) The certificate granted under this regulation shall not be valid for the purpose of availing tax rebate under criteria prescribed in Income Tax Ordinance, 2001 (XLIX of 2001).

6. Scope of Shariah compliance certificate.— The scope of Shariah compliance certificate shall be limited to the Shariah screening criteria.

7. Refusal for grant or renewal of Shariah Compliance certificate— (1) The Commission may, after affording reasonable opportunity of hearing to the applicant, refuse to grant or renew a certificate if in the opinion of the Commission such applicant does not fulfill the requirements prescribed in these regulations or where the Commission, after taking into account the facts, is of the view that it is not in the public interest to grant or renew such certificate.

(2) The applicant if aggrieved by the decision of the Commission under sub-regulation (1), may, within thirty days from the date of receipt of such refusal, prefer an appeal before the appellate bench under section 33 of the Securities and Exchange Commission of Pakistan Act 1997 (XLII of 1997).

CHAPTER III

GRANT OF SHARIAH COMPLIANCE CERTIFICATE FOR SECURITIES

8. Shariah compliance certificate for securities.— No security shall be called a Shariah compliant security unless a Shariah compliance certificate has been issued by the Commission under these regulations.
9. Application for grant of Shariah compliance certificate for issuance of Shariah compliant security.- (1) Any company intending to issue a Shariah compliant security shall make an application to the Commission as set out in Form E, for grant of Shariah compliance certificate for issuance of Shariah compliant security, providing information and documents as required therein and receipt evidencing the payment of non-refundable processing fee as prescribed in Schedule I.

(2) The Commission shall, while considering an application duly made under sub-regulation (1) have regard to the underlying structure of the security under the permissible modes of Islamic financing and such other matters that the Commission may consider relevant.

10. Grant of Shariah compliance certificate for securities.- (1) The Commission may, if it is satisfied that the company seeking permission to issue a Shariah compliant security has fulfilled the Shariah requirements, grant a Shariah compliance certificate on the format as set out in Form F subject to such terms and condition or restrictions as it deem fit to impose:

Provided that the Commission may at any time vary or revoke such restrictions or conditions as it may require.

(2) The Commission may, after affording reasonable opportunity of hearing to the applicant, refuse the application made under sub-regulation (1) of regulation 9, if in the opinion of the Commission such applicant does not fulfill the requirements prescribed in these regulations or where the Commission, after taking into account the facts, is of the view that it is not in the public interest to grant Shariah compliance certificate.

CHAPTER IV
SHARIAH SCREENING CRITERIA

11. Shariah screening criteria.- The following minimum Shariah criteria shall be followed by all persons for Shariah screening of companies,-
