

NOTICE FOR THE GENERAL PUBLIC

Unauthorised use of PSX Proprietary Material in Social Media Channels, Pages & Posts

This notice serves to inform the general public that the unauthorised use of the Pakistan Stock Exchange Limited's (PSX) logo, along with other proprietary material, constitutes a legal violation and is strictly forbidden. This prohibition encompasses but is not limited to, the use of PSX's intellectual property on stationery, business cards, social media platform, or any other medium in any capacity, or the act of impersonating a PSX employee or executive. PSX exclusively owns the rights to its name, logo, social media profiles and other related intellectual properties and reserves the right to initiate legal proceedings against any person (be it an individual or a corporate entity), for the unauthorised use of these intellectual rights and assets, with all associated costs and consequences falling entirely upon the infringing party.

It is thus imperative to understand that any infringement will be met with zero tolerance and stern legal measures will be enforced against violators.

Individuals and entities that engage with, subscribe to, or seek advice from any parties not officially authorised by PSX are advised to exercise their own due diligence. PSX disclaims any responsibility for any losses or damages incurred as a result of engaging with unauthorised representations of its intellectual property, including but not limited to interactions with unsanctioned social media pages, posts, web groups, or WhatsApp groups.
